Kathleen's practice is concentrated in the areas of real estate, finance, and business transactions. Her broad-based representation includes all aspects of the acquisition, management, and disposition of real estate, the origination and servicing of securitized and non securitized loans, hospitality industry matters, and general business matters.

Most recently, Kathleen was recognized as one of "Dallas/Fort Worth's Most Influential Women" in the Dallas Business Journal's inaugural Women in Business Awards program. Additionally, she was recently selected to the "Most Powerful and Influential Women in Texas" list by Texas Diversity Magazine. Kathleen has also been recognized as a member of the 2007 edition of the Lawdragon 500 Leading Lawyers in America, as well as one of the top real estate lawyers in Texas on several occasions. In 2003 - 2007, Texas Monthly Magazine named Kathleen a Texas "super lawyer" and DMagazine named Kathleen one of the best lawyers in Dallas. In addition, in 2003, the Texas Lawyer Magazine named Kathleen as one of the top six "go to" real estate lawyers in the state.

Kathleen is a speaker and author on multiple issues affecting women in the workplace including articles in the National Law Journal, Texas Lawyer, Lawyers Network and Legal Times. Most recently, one of Kathleen's articles was featured on The Wall Street Journal's Law Blog and she was a guest on the Legal Broadcast Network. In 2008 Kathleen was selected as one of the "50 Most Powerful and Influential Women in Texas" by Texas Diversity magazine. In 2006 and 2005 Kathleen was nominated as a finalist for the Association of Women Journalists Vivian Castleberry Award for her work with such publications. Additionally, Kathleen is a 2007 recipient of the "Women of Spirit" Award from the American Jewish Congress and the 2007 recipient of the Justice David Wellington Chew Award from the Asian Pacific Interest Section of the State Bar of Texas. In 2006 Kathleen was awarded the prestigious Louise B. Raggio Award by the Dallas Women Lawyers Association and in 2005 she was awarded the Highest Achievement in the Law Award from the Asian American Chamber of Commerce. Kathleen often serves as a commentator for the national public radio Dallas affiliate and is very active and participates in a variety of local, charitable and civic organization.
