

Headline News

Andrews Kurth Congratulates American Express CEO Kenneth I. Chenault and GE Chairman & CEO Jeffrey R. Immelt on LDF National Equal Justice Awards

October 24, 2007

New York, New York

NEW YORK - Andrews Kurth congratulates Kenneth I. Chenault, Chairman & CEO of American Express and Jeffrey R. Immelt, Chairman & CEO of GE, on receiving the 21st NAACP Legal Defense and Education Fund, Inc. (NAACP LDF) National Equal Justice Award. The awards will be presented at the National Justice Award Dinner on November 1, 2007, at the Hilton Hotel and Towers in New York.

"The Equal Justice Award is a great honor for our long-time client, American Express, and I am pleased to be able to be a part of Mr. Chenault's recognition," said Lynne Fischman Uniman, managing partner of the New York office. "Andrews Kurth is proud to be a sponsor of this event and to support LDF, an organization whose mission we value tremendously. We salute both American Express and GE on their leadership and commitment to diversity and inclusion."

Clarence B. Jones will be among the firm's honored guests attending the dinner. Mr. Jones was the personal counsel and principal speechwriter to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Mr. Jones currently is a Scholar-in-Residence at the King Research & Educational Institute at Stanford University, where he is completing his memoirs which are slated for publication by Harper Collins in April 2008.

About Andrews Kurth

For more than a century, Andrews Kurth LLP has built its practice on the belief that "straight talk is good business." Real answers, clear vision and mutual respect define the firm's relationships with clients, colleagues, communities and employees. With more than 400 lawyers and offices in Austin, Beijing, Dallas, Houston, London, Los Angeles, New York, The Woodlands and Washington, DC, Andrews Kurth represents a wide array of clients in all areas of business law. For more information about Andrews Kurth, please visit andrewskurth.com.